

CLIMATE ACTION ADMINISTRATOR

Full-time, Remote

PROTECTING OUR COAST. BUILDING OUR ECONOMY.

A unique alliance of nine BC First Nations, creating jobs for the future and protecting the Great Bear Rainforest.

The CFN-GBI is a not-for-profit Society established in 2003 that is owned and operated by a unique alliance of First Nations on British Columbia's North and Central Coast and Haida Gwaii. The principal goal of this group is to restore and implement ecologically, socially, and economically sustainable resource management approaches on the Central and North Coast and Haida Gwaii. About the Indigenous Climate Action Network

The Indigenous Climate Action Network supports local staff (Climate Action Coordinators, or CACs) in remote Indigenous communities throughout BC to advance climate action projects through salary funding, training and mentorship. The CACs work involves planning and implementing energy efficiency, renewable energy generation, and climate change resilience projects to reduce diesel consumption and greenhouse gas (GHG) emissions, prepare for climate change, and meet other related community objectives.

Who we are looking for

You are passionate about climate action and Indigenous-led solutions. You are very well versed and have experience working in the field of administration for Indigenous communities. You are skilled at relationship building and coordinating projects. You are eager to bring your skills and experience to a non-profit organization that works to advance sustainability for the Nations we work with. You find it easy to work independently and take the initiative where needed. You are also a collaborator and thrive working in a supportive team environment. You can prioritize and manage multiple tasks and deliverables, while knowing how to ask for help when needed. You are tactful, emotionally intelligent, and are eager to make a positive impact with a commitment to Indigenous Stewardship.
